Pittsburgh (March 16, 2014) – Pittsburgh singer songwriter John McDonald will perform his 2014 CD release Right Place, Right Time.

About the CD Release Event

Known for his high-energy performances, John will perform the songs from Right Place, Right Time backed by a twelve-piece band.

This show promises to be the Right Place, Right Time to thaw out from a long, cold Winter on St. Patrick's Day Eve 2014, with a shot of percussive rock mixed with world-flavored rhythms and a dash of calypso and reggae.

About John McDonald's CD

Produced by award-winning Nashville producer/songwriter Rick Beresford, Right Place, Right Time is a feel good, up-tempo musical fusion that combines tropical instrumentation, world beat rhythms and evocative lyrics with poignant themes.

Recorded both in Pittsburgh and Cocoa Beach FL, listeners hear the tropical, world-beat influence on Wet Weather, Lose My Head Come to My Senses, I Keep My Feet Moving, Let the Waters Flow, People Come into Your Life and Azaa Loo, a West African title meaning “Celebration!” In fact, this track is a global collaboration that prominently features an African ensemble John never actually met in person.
